

Privacy Policy for Georgia Residents

This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, and protect personal information from individuals who visit our website or interact with our services. Many states, including Georgia, require businesses that market directly to residents to display a clear privacy policy. For more information on state-specific requirements.

Information We Collect

We may collect the following types of information when you use our website or submit forms:

- Contact details (name, email address, phone number)
- Application or leasing information
- Website usage data (IP address, browser type, pages visited)
- Any information you voluntarily provide through communication with us

How We Use Your Information

Your information may be used to:

- Provide and manage housing-related services
- Respond to inquiries or service requests
- Process applications, renewals, and resident communications
- Improve website performance and user experience
- Comply with legal or regulatory obligations

How We Share Information

We do not sell personal information. We may share information only with:

- Trusted service providers who support our operations
- Legal authorities when required by law
- Property management or ownership entities involved in your housing relationship

All partners are required to maintain confidentiality and safeguard your information.

Your Rights as a Georgia Resident

You may:

- Request access to the personal information we maintain
- Request corrections to inaccurate information
- Request deletion of certain information, subject to legal retention requirements
