

Meet your Resident Advisory Board Members

The Resident Advisory Board (RAB) was established to encourage residents to engage in their community and positively affect the quality of life of families living within Knox Hills. A huge thank you to the resident volunteers for donating their time and contributing to the success of their community!

Residents are encouraged to share ideas and suggestions with their RAB representatives as you see them in the community or by emailing RAB@knoxhills.com. Knox Hills values all suggestions and recommendations.

David Haffner

North Dietz

David is a civilian who has lived with Knox Hills since 2019. His love of helping people and making the places he lives more enjoyable is the reason behind his decision to join the RAB.

Doug Nee

Edwards

Doug is retired from the Navy and law enforcement and has lived with Knox Hills since 2016. He brings a lifetime of experience from various communities around the country and believes that communication with neighbors is paramount to having a wonderful community to live in.

Gary Remington

Matthews Place

Gary is a retired NCO and has lived with Knox Hills since 2016 during his time as a GOV Civilian. He chose to become a RAB member to become involved and help other residents.

Lisa Wells

Chestnut Glen

Lisa recently retired after serving in the Army and Army Reserves for 30 years and has lived with Knox Hills since 2011. She loves feeling at home in the Fort Knox community, she enjoys serving and giving back.

Clint Denney

Matthews Place

Clint moved to Fort Knox in March of 2021. He enjoys living and working on Fort Knox. He became a RAB member because he says he takes great pride in the community and wants to do his part to ensure Fort Knox residents enjoy living on the installation.
