

Resident Ambassadors Board Application

PURPOSE

The Resident Ambassadors Board's (RABs) objective is to improve the on-base living experience and satisfaction for all residents through volunteerism, listening to residents, and facilitating resident connection and communication. This document serves as an application to join the RAB.

RAB VALUES

RAB Ambassadors adhere to the following core values:

- Service – We are the bridge between community needs, resident advocacy, and resident connection.
- Open and Active Listening – We prioritize empathy and create an environment where all voices are heard and respected.
- Candor and Transparency – We engage in open, honest communication, sharing information transparently between project leadership and residents.
- Respect – We treat all individuals with dignity, regardless of their background, position, or opinions, and value their unique contributions.
- Inclusivity – We provide an opportunity for all voices to be heard and all residents to be represented.
- Exemplary Conduct – We model exemplary behavior in all our interactions with residents, fellow RAB Ambassadors, project teams, vendors, stakeholders, and all people we encounter.
- Follow-Up – We complete tasks within agreed-upon timelines and keep residents informed of RAB actions and activities.
